WILSON DEMANDS DIVISION OF GREAT MEXICAN ESTATES FOR BENEFIT OF THE POOR

Huerta Delegates Willing, but Balk at Treating With Carranza's Representatives.

BREAK SEEMS IMMINENT.

Mediators Want Americans to Withdraw Order for Elimination of Dictator.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ontario, May 25.—The division of the great estates in the rural districts of Mexico so that the poor and small farmers may become land owners is now the chief issue involved in the efforts of the South American mediators to avert war between the United States and Mexico.

In a midnight conference between the A. B. C. mediators and the American peace delegates President Wilson's views on the land question were laid before the mediators, who repeated them at a morning session today to the Mexican delegates.

After the conference today it was announced that the progress of the mediation had progressed to a most satisfactory stage. The difficulties over the manner of introducing the land question into the discussion are being overcome and this point will be included in the scope of the mediation programme. This was stated on the authority of one of the South American envoys.

It was revealed also today that the discussion over the land question had not so much concerned the merits of any plan for the settling of Mexico's chief economic difficulties as the relative importance that should be attached to the question in drawing up a programme for the new provisional government.

The expectation was that another conference would be held today. President Wilson's plan calls for a division of the immense haciendas of Mexico—in many cases of many million acres—into small plots. The President thinks co-operation of the Carranza Constitutionalists is necessary. The Huerta delegates, it is declared, are willing to incorporate the land reforms in the peace treaty, but they are opposed to the entry of the Constitutionalists into the Government of the Republic.

The presence here of prominent "Felicistas"—adherents of Felix Diaz—is taken to indicate a probability that Diaz, a nephew of former President Porfirio Diaz, will be a member of the new government.

DETECTIVE SHOTS MURDEROUS NEGRO WHO STARTS FIRING

Chases Him Through Saloon and Brings Him Down on Sidewalk.

Alexander Thomas, a negro, was shot and probably mortally wounded by Detective Paul Schubert of Inspector Ryan's staff in a running pistol fight at Lenox avenue and One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street this afternoon.

A bullet from Schubert's revolver passed through the negro's body just below the heart.

Schubert and Detective Lawler were passing through Lenox avenue, when Thomas approached them and abused them for arresting his friend, Philip Carter, a few days ago on the charge of running a disorderly house. Finally Thomas drew a revolver and pulled a beer bottle from his pocket.

Both detectives yanked out their guns. Thomas ran into the doorway of a saloon at the northeast corner of Lenox avenue and One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street and fired a shot at the sleuths who pursued him. Running through the saloon, Thomas fired again as he was passing through the side door into One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street.

Then Schubert fired. Thomas pitched forward through the door and fell on the sidewalk. A policeman in uniform shot at him as he was falling, but missed him.

Thomas was taken to Harlem Hospital. He said he was thirty years old and lived at No. 145 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street.

Carter is serving a three-month term on Blackwell's island.

REDMOND WINS FIGHT FOR IRISH HOME RULE; BILL PASSED, IS LAW

Measure Goes Through the House of Commons for the Third Time on Strict Party Division, Vote Being 351 to 274.

QUICK ACTION WITHOUT SERIOUS CLASH SURPRISES

Rejection Now by House of Lords Will Have No Effect—Amending Bill Will Follow Immediately.

LONDON, May 25.—The Irish Home Rule bill passed its third reading in the House of Commons today by a majority of seventy-seven. The votes in favor of the measure totalled 351 and those against 274. It was the third enactment of Home Rule by the Commons and by the Parliament act the measure now becomes law with the signature of King George even though it be rejected by the House of Lords. Under the Parliament act any bill that is passed in three consecutive sessions of the House of Commons becomes a law by royal assent even though approval of the Lords is withheld. The King will sign the Home Rule measure.

The division was strictly a political one and the vote was practically the same as on the last enactment of the measure,
